That there may be no divisions in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together, if one members is honored, all rejoice together
 – 1 Corinthians 12:25-26

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What does a Covenant commitment to the church mean to you personally and what does it look like practically?
2. How is a Covenant commitment different from typical, traditional church membership?
3. What does Partnership with one another in the local church look like? How can we Practically do the “one anothers’ for each other and make Christ known?
