

SERMON on the MOUNT

PART 4: THE WAY OF RECONCILIATION (MT 5:21-26)

THE MANNER IN WHICH WE HANDLE OUR ANGER TOWARDS OTHERS SAYS A LOT ABOUT OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

_____ THE _____
OF YOUR ANGER

we often confuse our anger with people for our anger with their behavior

QUICKLY, _____ TO THE OFFENDER OR OFFENDED

mending a broken relationship should be handled one-on-one. The longer you wait to make things right the worse the situation can become

TRY TO _____ THE MATTER WITH THE _____ PERSON

the purpose of reconciliation should always be the restoration of fellowship with an individual which leads to restoration with God

"So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" - Matthew 5:23-24 ESV

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why does Jesus relate anger with murder? Look at 1John 3:15-17.
2. What's the difference between being upset with someone's behavior and being upset with the person themselves? How can we separate them?
3. Why is time of the essence when dealing with resentment or anger?
4. What does reconciliation mean? What does it look like practically?
